STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Performer shall render Performer's services in connection with this engagement to the best of Performer's ability, and subject to Producer's direction and control. Performer will abide by all reasonable rules and regulations of Producer, the broadcaster, the sponsor(s) and their advertising agencies, and Performer will refrain from any offensive or distasteful remarks or conduct in connection with this engagement. Performer shall, if and as required by this written contract, be available to participate in commercial inserts and leads into and out of such commercial inserts. The Producer, broadcaster(s), and the sponsor(s) and their advertising agencies may open and answer mail addressed to Performer relating to the program, provided that all such mail relating to Performer and intended for him or copies thereof shall be turned over to Performer within a reasonable length of time.

2. (a) Performer shall indemnify Producer, the sponsors and their advertising agencies, the network, and all stations broadcasting the program against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of the use of any materials, ideas, creations, and properties (herein called "materials") whether or not required of Performer, furnished by Performer in connection with this engagement, and any adlibs spoken or unauthorized acts done by Performer in connection therewith, Producer shall similarly indemnify Performer in respect to "materials" furnished by Producer, and acts done or words spoken by Performer at Producer's request. The fact that a program is pre-recorded and subject to editing shall in no way alter the respective responsibilities of Performer or Producer for anything said or done in connection with any program. Each party will give the other prompt notice of any such claims and/or legal proceedings (and shall send a copy of such notice to SAG-AFTRA) and shall cooperate with each other on all matters covered by this paragraph.

(b) If this agreement requires, as an express additional provision, that Performer furnish materials (herein called "required materials") in connection with his performance hereunder, Performer shall submit such required materials to Producer at such time prior to performance thereof as may be reasonably designated by Producer, and such required materials shall, as between Producer and Performer, unless otherwise expressly provided in this agreement under the heading "Additions", be and remain the property of Performer.

3. In full payment for Performer's services and the rights and privileges granted to Producer hereunder, Producer shall pay Performer the compensation hereinbefore specified not later than Thursday after the week during which Performer's services shall have been rendered, subject to the deduction of such taxes and withholdings as are authorized or required by law. There shall be no obligation on Producer's part to produce or broadcast the program or to use Performer's services or materials, if any.

4. The program hereunder may be originally broadcast either live or by recording over the facilities arranged by or for Producer. The term "recordings", as used herein, shall mean and include any recording or recordings made whether before or during a broadcast transmission, by electrical transcription, tape recording, wire recording, film or any other similar or dissimilar method of recording television programs, whether now known or hereinafter developed. All recordings as between Producer and Performer shall be Producer's sole property, but shall be subject to the restrictions contained in the SAG-AFTRA Code in effect at the time such recording is made, except as SAG-AFTRA may otherwise permit in writing. Performer will, if required by Producer, re-enact the performance, in whole or in part, in connection with any recording of all or any portion of the program (which Producer may deem desirable) in order to make adjustments necessitated by mechanical failures, or adjustments or corrections in performances after the date of performance, provided that such re-recording is done not later than seven (7) days after the broadcast in the case of a live program or seven (7) days after the Performer's final performance day in the case of a pre-recorded program, and at a time which does not conflict with Performer's other bona fide commitments, and provided, further, that Producer shall pay for Performer's services in connection with such re-recording such additional compensation as may be required by the said SAG-AFTRA Code.

5. If the recording of a program, or broadcast in the case of a live program hereunder is prevented by government regulation or order, or by a strike, or by the failure of broadcasting facilities because of war or other calamity such as fire, earthquake, hurricane, or similar acts of God, or because of the breakdown of such broadcasting facilities due to causes beyond the reasonable control of the Producer (such as the collapse of the transmitter due to structural defects), Producer shall be relieved of any responsibility for the payment of compensation for the program so prevented; provided that in such case Producer shall reimburse Performer for all out of pocket costs necessarily incurred in connection with such program. In addition Performer shall be paid the full applicable rehearsal rate for all hours rehearsed prior to notice of cancellation. The same consequences shall ensue if the program time is preempted by a Presidential broadcast, a news emergency or the telecast of a special news event and notice of cancellation for such purpose is given Performer promptly upon such notice having been received by Producer. Where the program is cancelled or prevented for any reason other than those stated above, or where insufficient advance notice has been given under the preceding sentence, Producer shall pay Performer his full contract price for the program so cancelled or prevented.

6. Producer is prohibited from requiring Performer to refrain from rendering his services in connection with any other television or radio services for any period other than the actual rehearsal and broadcast period involved in this engagement; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply if Performer's compensation for this engagement shall be $1,500.00 or more.

7. Notwithstanding any provision in this agreement to the contrary it is specifically understood and agreed by all parties hereto:

(a) That they are bound by all the terms and provisions of the applicable SAG-AFTRA Code of Fair Practice for Television Broadcasting, including payment of Supplemental Market fees. Should there be any inconsistency between this agreement and the said Code of Fair Practice, the said Code shall prevail; but nothing in this provision shall affect terms, compensation, or conditions provided for in this agreement which are more favorable to members of SAG-AFTRA than the terms, compensation or conditions provided for in said Code of Fair Practice.

(b) That Performer is covered by the provisions of Paragraph 102 of said Code entitled "AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds."

(c) That Performer is or will become a member of SAG-AFTRA in good standing, subject to and in accordance with the Union Shop provision of said Code of Fair Practice.

(d) All disputes and controversies of every kind and nature arising out of or in connection with this agreement shall be determined by arbitration with the procedure and provisions of the said SAG-AFTRA Code of Fair Practice.

(e) Producers will recognize that it is SAG-AFTRA's intent to assure that its members receive from Producer or any of its agents or retainers, treatment befitting the professional character and nature of its members.

8. Producer shall separately set forth in this Agreement in specific money figures those fees required pursuant to Paragraph 73 of the SAG-AFTRA Code for replay or foreign use rights, clearly stating the rate to be paid for each re-play or foreign use, and not by reference to Code paragraph numbers. NOTE: These figures need not include additional payments provided for in Paragraph 73 (b) (1) (2) of the SAG-AFTRA Code, but such payments shall be made when they become due.

9. This agreement, when executed by Performer and Producer, shall constitute the entire understanding between them, and shall be construed according to the laws of the State of _____, applicable to contracts fully performed therein.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Caution: To claim certain credits or deductions on your tax return, you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) are required to have a social security number valid for employment. See page 2 for more information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if you: are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than Step 2(b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, Step 2(b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	(a) Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,200	3(a)	$
	(b) Multiply the number of other dependents by $500	3(b)	$
	Add the amounts from Steps 3(a) and 3(b), plus the amount for other credits. Enter the total here	3	$

Step 4: Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. Use the Deductions Worksheet on page 4 to determine the amount of deductions you may claim, which will reduce your withholding. (If you skip this line, your withholding will be based on the standard deduction.) Enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Exempt from withholding	I claim exemption from withholding for 2026, and I certify that I meet both of the conditions for exemption for 2026. See Exemption from withholding on page 2. I understand I will need to submit a new Form W-4 for 2027 <input type="checkbox"/>

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
	Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)	Date

Employers Only	Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2026 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2025 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2026. You had no federal income tax liability in 2025 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2025 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2026 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section. Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2027.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount of tax withheld will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain credits. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4.

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 15, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2026 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest; student loan interest; IRAs; and seniors. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain deductions. For additional eligibility requirements, see Pub. 501.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe when you file your tax return.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____

2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a 2a $ _____

b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____

c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____

4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (plus any other additional amount you want withheld) 4 $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

See the Instructions for Schedule 1-A (Form 1040) for more information about whether you qualify for the deductions on lines 1a, 1b, 1c, 3a, and 3b.

1 Deductions for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest.
